The Class of 1954

Presents

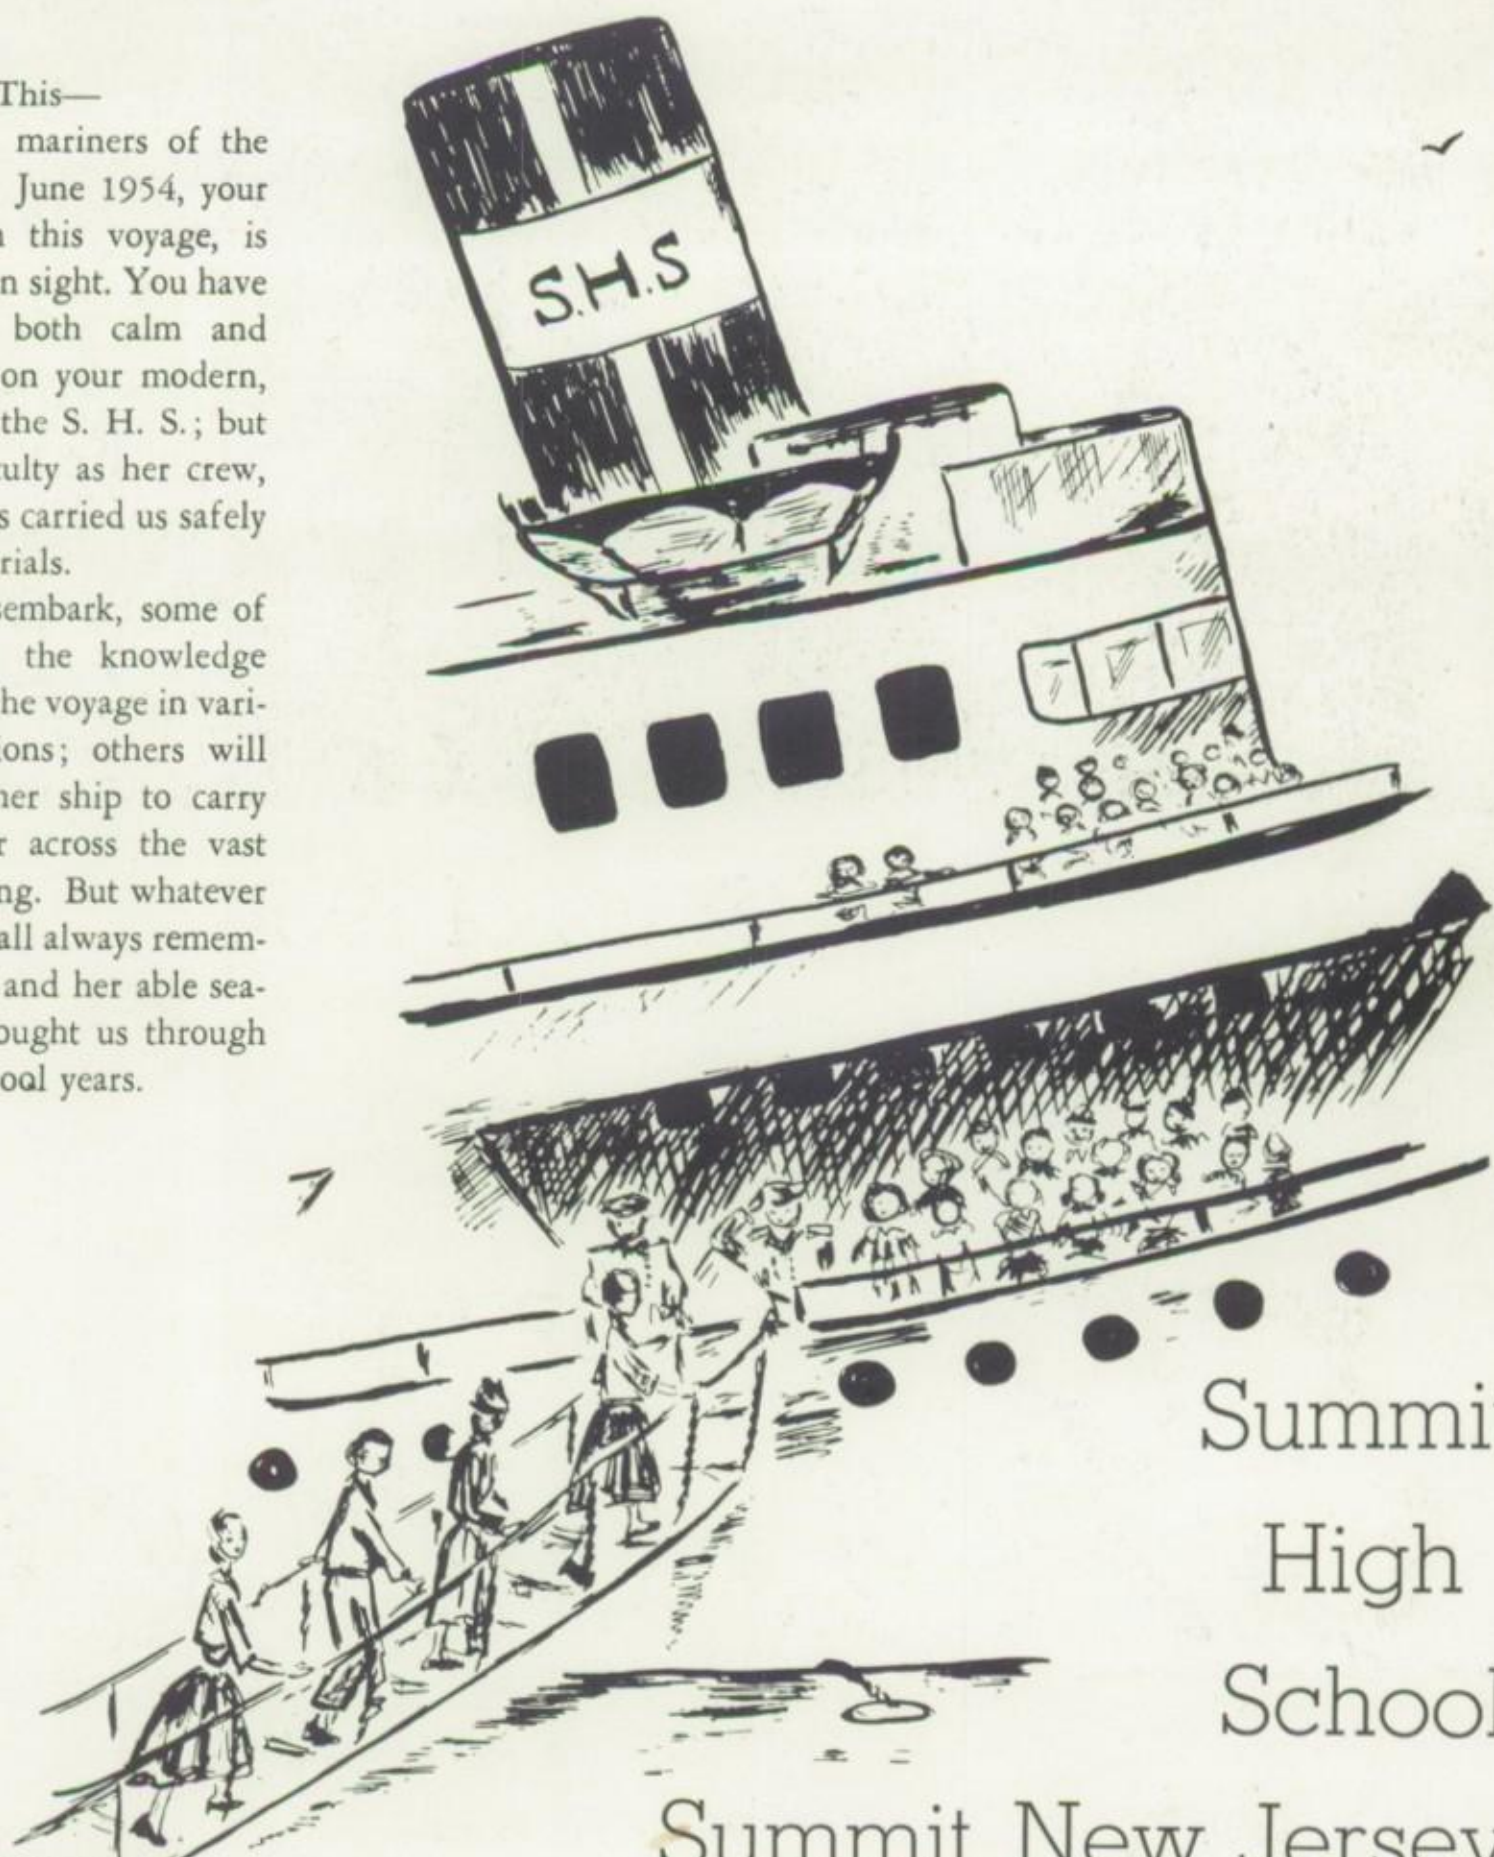

The Top

FOREWORD

Now Hear This—

Land ho! mariners of the senior class. June 1954, your last port on this voyage, is now clearly in sight. You have experienced both calm and stormy seas on your modern, sturdy ship, the S. H. S.; but with our faculty as her crew, the vessel has carried us safely through all trials.

As we disembark, some of us will use the knowledge acquired on the voyage in various occupations; others will choose another ship to carry them farther across the vast sea of learning. But whatever we do, we shall always remember the ship and her able seamen that brought us through our high school years.

Summit

Summit, New Jersey

IN APPRECIATION

TO MRS. HELEN DAVIS

Helen S. Davis

. . . for your efforts as a teacher and adviser we, the class of 1954, dedicate our Top. Under your guidance the Assembly Committee provided us with programs both diversified and entertaining. You originated within the last two years the Senior Book Club, which enables its members to gain a better understanding of and liking for books. Having acquired knowledge and experience from your classes as well as these groups, we are better prepared for what lies ahead. This dedication of our yearbook to you is an expression of our gratitude for what you have done for the school and us.

G. O. OFFICERS

President ----- Edward Smit
Vice president ----- Frank Frenda
Secretary ----- Barbara Brennan
Treasurer ----- Betty Ormond

A happy and enriching part of school life rests in activities. Besides the benefit we receive from participation, there is also the general improvement in the appearance and the maintenance of our school.

CORRIDOR COMMITTEE

How many times were you approached in the halls by a student who asked you to keep moving or to use the "other" stairs? He or she was a member of the Corridor Committee merely striving to keep order during a rush hour. On our ship we came to realize how important and how necessary the work of such a group was. Mr. Knipple's committee did a good job this year in maintaining smoothly flowing traffic and encouraging orderly conduct. Result? A better S.H.S., of course!

SERVICE COMMITTEE

Services such as those rendered by the Service Committee made our ship-board life more enjoyable. Guided by the friendly advice of Miss Thomas, this group lent a willing hand wherever it was needed. Ushering for the G. O. Show and football games, leading homerooms to assemblies, and maintaining a hall duty post at the front door to welcome guests were only three of the Service Committee's many duties.

First row: V. Maino, M. McGiffin, H. Stauder, M. Landrieu. Second row: S. Leach, B. Brennan, C. Eberhardt, G. Lavery, Miss Thomas, L. Ellis, M. Hughes, M. Taylor. Rear row: E.

Under the supervision of Miss Freas, the Junior Red Cross Committee of 1953-1954 performed a commendable job. Their hard work netted them a fine mark of one hundred percent in the annual Red Cross drive. This committee achieved further success in the nylon drive, aimed at purchasing a television set for Greystone. Much credit was given to this ambitious group for its fine work.

First row: M. Taylor, M. McGiffin, T. Thompson, F. Stephenson, Miss Freas, J. Tresidder, C. Waldau, L. Onderdonk, B. Wallace, K. Wrightstone. Second row: B. Martin, J. Shilling, P. Hoffman, V. Pott, S. Frank, D. Warren, M. Landrieu, H. Stauder, V. Reed, J. Gilbert, V. Evans. Rear row: J. Dalton, B. Scholnick, J. Hann, J. Hann, P. Liddy, D. Currey, W. Coit, J. Savino, F. Craig, J. Travis, M. Grove.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Democracy at work was again demonstrated in our active and representative Student Council. Amendments, rule changes, and other points of argument were discussed and voted upon. Sponsoring the G. O. Show, promoting the magazine subscription drive, and conducting several good-will drives were three of the council's many accomplishments. The executives of the passengers aboard the S.H.S., Ed Smit and Frank Frenda, the president and vice president, were advised by Mr. McClellan. We at Summit High were justified in our pride of the General Organization and its council.

First row: P. Klaren, J. Schwarz, B. Ormond, F. Frenda, E. Smit, B. Brennan, D. Knoop, A. Jarnigan. Second row: S. Smith, T. Bakker, L. Burroughs, B. Limbach, B. Ascolese, M.

Hughes, M. Taylor, G. Lavery, E. Collier, M. Irwin. Rear row: J. Bullock, T. Mendenhall, C. Biddulph, T. Wilkes, D. Walker, C. Wiedenmayer, R. Pott, D. Hughlett, D. Bannister, T. Gude, R. Smit. [57]

STAGE CREW

Did you ever wonder this year how such marvelous effects were achieved during the G. O. Show and our Christmas assembly? The stage crew, a group of boys who worked behind the scenes and took care of the stage-lighting and the public address system, was responsible. However, their talents weren't for school stage work alone, for outside organizations also utilized the services of the crew.

J. Young, K. Vansant, E. O'Brien, T. Gude, F. Allen, R. Pinepucks, D. Lundry, S. Coburn.

SAFETY COMMITTEE

Safety aboard any ship is of the utmost importance. And so it was on our ship, the S.H.S. With sixty-four members on its roster, the Safety Committee was one of the largest committees in our school. This organization, working in cooperation with the Summit Fire Department and the Civil Defense Group, held fire and air raid drills throughout the year as protection for the student body. Mr. Furth was faculty adviser.

First row: D. Knoop, T. Mendenhall, J. Walsh, S. Frank, M. Moorhead, J. Shilling, P. Hoffman, S. Leach, N. May, M. Magovern, M. Romach, B. Martin, P. Bothwell. Second row: H. Long, D. Borrillo, J. Bullock, R. Doll, C. Low, J. Jacobsen, W. Schroeder, A. Jarnigan, W. Wilkes, R. Weed, Mr. Furth. Third

FIRST AID SQUAD

Anyone who either visited our Medical Room or needed medical attention became acquainted with our First Aid Squad, Mrs. Matthew's helpers. While waiting for a Band Aid and hoping that the vocabulary test would be over by the time he returned to class, a student realized that these girls were gaining valuable practical experience in administering First Aid. Miss Jones was adviser.

First row: M. King, B. Ormond, P. Dowd, F. Filo, E. Clifton, E. Mizzoni, M. Hughes, S. Leach, A. Spawn, J. McGough, J. Roberts. Rear row: C. Olson, D. Reuble, J. Harobine, S. Scholnick, M. Carlone, C. Bishop, P. Murray, A. Olofson, B. Hulin, E. Mommsen.

HOUSE AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE

"Who removed the potted palm from in front of the captain's cabin?" We're sure that such a query never came from one of the mates of Summit High; but if such a question had arisen, it would have been referred to the House and Grounds Committee. Supervision of the grounds, corridors, lockers, and lavatories was Mr. Dampman's committee's responsibility. This year special Student Council appointments were made to provide us with a cleaner ship.

PROJECTION CREW

As on any ship, the crew aboard the S.H.S. was constantly searching for numerous ways to make our trip easier and yet more profitable. Visual aids and tape recording were supplied in many of our classes by Miss White's Projection Crew. The group served Summit High faithfully and efficiently, and their continual efforts to maintain the high standards of our visual aids program were appreciated by both students and faculty.

G. VanDyke, Miss White, F. Allen, L. Twill, P. Frosch, R. Doyle, R. Fries, R. Lundberg, R. Garbacz, R. League.

Pete Hebble

Sprechen Sie Deutsch? Well, actually not very well, but we understood that members of the newly chartered German Club did. However, activities of the club were not confined to speaking German. Christmas was observed with a traditional German play performed for parents of the club members. Field trips taken to a German restaurant and a movie were additional projects which rounded out the year's activities.

ENTRE NOUS

Present and past members of advanced French were given the opportunity by Entre Nous, the French Club, to talk, play, and sing in French. Its sixty-five members, meeting once a month, celebrated these outstanding events: the Louisiana Purchase, Noël, La Fête des rois, St. Charlemagne, and the birth-lays of Frenchmen famous in various fields.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The International Relations Club, open to any student of Summit High School, was designed to stimulate interest in, and understanding of, world politics through cooperative study and discussion. Regular meetings, the programs for which were planned by the members, were held monthly. Delegates attended and participated in the annual meetings of the New Jersey International Relations Forum and the Herald Tribune Forum.

First row: B. Little, M. Polk, C. McMahon, S. Munn, J. Gilbert, B. Shad, J. Spitzer, D. Harley. Second row: C. Heyer, V. Leamer, H. Stauder, M. Landrieu, B. Robinson, E. Horowitz, B.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

Although only three years old, the Modern Dance Group gave evidence of having made much progress under the able direction of Mrs. Bears. Meeting once a week from December to March, and then more often as the Spring Concert drew near, these girls had a chance to plan and perform some truly remarkable dance numbers. They delighted us with some clever interpretations of this most expressive form of dancing.

First row: A. Facchinei, F. Sansone, B. Ormond, V. McCourt, C. Heyer, B. Rosa. Rear row: J. McGough, F. Mayer, J. Hann, J. Hann.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC HONOR SOCIETY

Every year certain girls are elected to the Girls' Athletic Honor Society. These girls, the most outstanding in athletics, devoted long hours to practice sessions, thus entitling them to win a major S.H.S. athletic award. They not only represented our school on sports days, but they also worked on the Tag Days for the Summit chapter of the American Cancer Society.

First row: P. Pelos, C. Waldau, P. Robb, B. Luciano, J. Harbaine, M. Fuschetti, J. Herbert, R. Boice. Second row: A. Traynor, B. Shad, V. Evans, C. Iandoli, D. Wolcocke, M. Sheridan, S. Grier, G. FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

Giving students an opportunity to apply their learning to actual situations, the Financial Department, under the supervision of Mr. Koppenol, performed an invaluable service to the school. In recording the money raised and spent by school organizations and activities, the department also gave evidence of the fine work of the S.H.S. business instructors.

E. Cummins, B. Smith, M. Dittmar, W. Kutcha, B. Ormond, D. Brockob.

GUISE AND DISGUISE

If sailing be for sailors, then acting is for actors; and actors in abundance were found in Summit High's dramatic club, Guise and Disguise. Mr. Crona directed the club in its presentation of an assembly program. All members contributed in some way to the production, although not all had an opportunity to act. The club worked to further interest in dramatics through its activities, which included discussions, demonstrations, and a trip to see a Broadway show.

Mr. Gast, C. Biddulph, R. Haupt, R. Anderson, A. Jarnigan.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

"Here's your change. Stub, please." To a loyal fan of the teams of Summit High School these quotations sounded quite familiar. In a recent extensive survey they were the phrases found to be most often uttered by members of Mr. Gast's Athletic Committee at home football and basketball games. However this did not constitute all of their duties, for the group was also in charge of running the scoreboard. This committee, as did many others, made our cruise a bit easier and more pleasant.

HANDBOOK REVISION COMMITTEE

On an active and progressive ship such as ours, rules and clubs are constantly changing. A revision of the handbook, designed to give information about new clubs and committees, or changes in our ship's policy, was required. After much consultation, this year's members made the necessary corrections or additions and sent their work to be printed in time for next September.

SCIENCE CLUB

Because of its size, the Science Club this year was divided into three groups—sections which dealt with chemistry, physics, and photography. The chemistry section, under the direction of Mr. Lukens, studied a new method of qualitative analysis. Sound was analyzed by the physics division with Mr. Roupp as adviser. Miss Federico worked with the photography group, which looked into the processes of developing and printing.

CAFETERIA ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Keeping things "ship shape" in the cafeteria was the task of the Cafeteria Advisory and Supervisory Committees. With Mr. Bogart at the helm, the advisory component of this organization explored the problems of our lunchroom under the guiding hand of Miss Schumacher. The supervisory half, subordinate to the advisory portion, was instrumental in the repression of such mutinies as cutting in line and leaving food on the tables. Our beautiful cafeteria undoubtedly was kept more pleasant by the exertions of this group of students.

MIMEOGRAPHING CREW

Working after school to mimeograph material for classes, committees, clubs and the P.T.A., the Mimeographing Crew was an organization for service. The crew, made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors from all three courses, and headed by Miss Hitz, was instituted four years ago. Since that time, the group has not only duplicated materials for school activities, but has also done work to help non-profit organizations outside of school.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB

Summit High's Sportsmen's Club has been in existence for four years and was organized by Mr. Ashman for those boys interested in fishing, hunting, and other phases of outdoor life. The furthering of the aims of conservation, the promoting of good sportsmanship, and the development of love and enjoyment of outdoor life were the club's objectives. Speakers, films, and interscholastic competition helped the members to reach their objectives and provided a well-rounded year's program for the Sportsmen's Club.

EL FAROL

A knowledge of vocabulary and verb conjugation is important for the study of Spanish or any other language. To get a complete picture of a nationality, however, other aspects must be studied. El Farol, Miss Carew's Spanish club, attempted to do this in a widely diversified program. A trip to New York to Spanish points of interest was the high light of the year's activities, which included movies, speakers, and the annual Arroz Con Pollo dinner.

With twenty-three members, aided by co-advisers Miss Hadsell and Miss Maxwell, the Book Mart spent a most interesting and busy year. The members learned library techniques by working at the desk, preparing new books, checking attendance, and performing general services to facilitate the operation of the library. The club had the opportunity to attend a meeting of the New Jersey School Library Council Association and went to New York in the spring.

THE TOP

In our busy lives aboard the S.H.S., many of us weren't aware of the Top as being more than a May production. Actually, as the members of the various staffs readily agreed, it was much more than this. Editors were picked last spring, so that they might have a chance to formulate ideas through the summer. Early in the autumn, staffs were organized and the real work was begun. Drawings and sketches, writing and more writing had to be checked and rechecked. Now, we, the editors, the artists, the writers, and the photographers have presented our work and hope that the Top for '54 is pleasing to you.

Shipboard life seemed very quick and fast-moving to us. One organization that made it easier to follow was the Tower. Faithful work by the various staffs provided us with a complete picture of our ever-changing activities. Mr. Woodside and his group deserved all the praise we gave, for they labored hard and came through with another fine year of work to their credit.

CHEERLEADERS

Pep is something we can't touch, see, hear, or smell; and yet all loyal S.H.S. rooters knew what it was. Our vivacious cheerleaders certainly understood what it was and made anyone who was doubtful recognize this intangible but familiar thing. The girls' efforts this year brought more fans to our varsity soccer games and made us realize the importance of supporting our various teams. The captain, crew, and passengers all tipped their hats to this outstanding squad.

TWIRLERS

Highstepping in front of our colorful marching band were a group of twirlers that brought S.H.S. much pride. Their snappy routines between the halves of our football games were executed with a skill that came only from practice. And what about the victory parades after an exciting defeat of an opposing team? Yes, these girls again preceded the band and helped to lift the already high spirits of the Summit High students.

The name? On The Town. The story? Three sailors, a twenty-four hour pass, and three girls. The show? Fast, funny, and light. The result? The G. O. Show for 1954.

G.O. SHOW

After much persuasion, Ivy promises to meet Gabey at Nedick's at 11.

The three sailors meet finally at Nedick's. Chip has Hildy; Ozzie has Claire; but Gabey is stood up. To get Gabey back in good spirits, the others decide to take him nightclubbing, and Hildy even arranges a date for him with Lucy, her roommate.

Going to three night clubs, they leave the checks for Claire's understanding fiancé, Pitkin, to pay. In one of the nightclubs Gabey sees Ivy's singing teacher, Madame Dilly, who reluctantly tells him where Ivy is working. Meanwhile, Pitkin, who has had enough, has them all arrested for disturbing the peace. Finally relenting, he discovers that he likes Lucy instead of Claire, and the three girls manage to say goodbye to the three sailors, about to be shipped from New York.

Three sailors, Gabey, Ozzie, and Chip, have a twenty-four hour pass in New York. On the subway into the big city, Gabey sees a picture of Miss Turnstiles for the month of June, decides he wants to meet her, and takes her picture from the subway. Ozzie and Chip agree to help him find her; and, taking clues from the poster, they separate, agreeing to meet at Nedick's at 11 p. m. Ozzie heads for the Museum of Modern Art but winds up in the Museum of Natural History. There he meets an anthropologist, Claire de Loone, and ends up spending the day with her. Chip heads for the subway, but is waylaid by a predatory female taxi-driver, Brunhilde Esterhazy, who has just been fired and is looking for an unsuspecting male. Falling into her clutches, he takes a quick tour of the city, then goes to her apartment for dinner. Gabey heads for Carnegie Hall. There he finds Ivy Smith, alias Miss Turnstiles.

ORCHESTRA

Enjoyable musical entertainment was provided this year at several assemblies by the orchestra, which, under the direction of Mr. Hannaford, performed a wide variety of works both classical and modern. Our "first class" passengers, the seniors, had a fine last impression of the orchestra when it furnished music for the graduation ceremony.

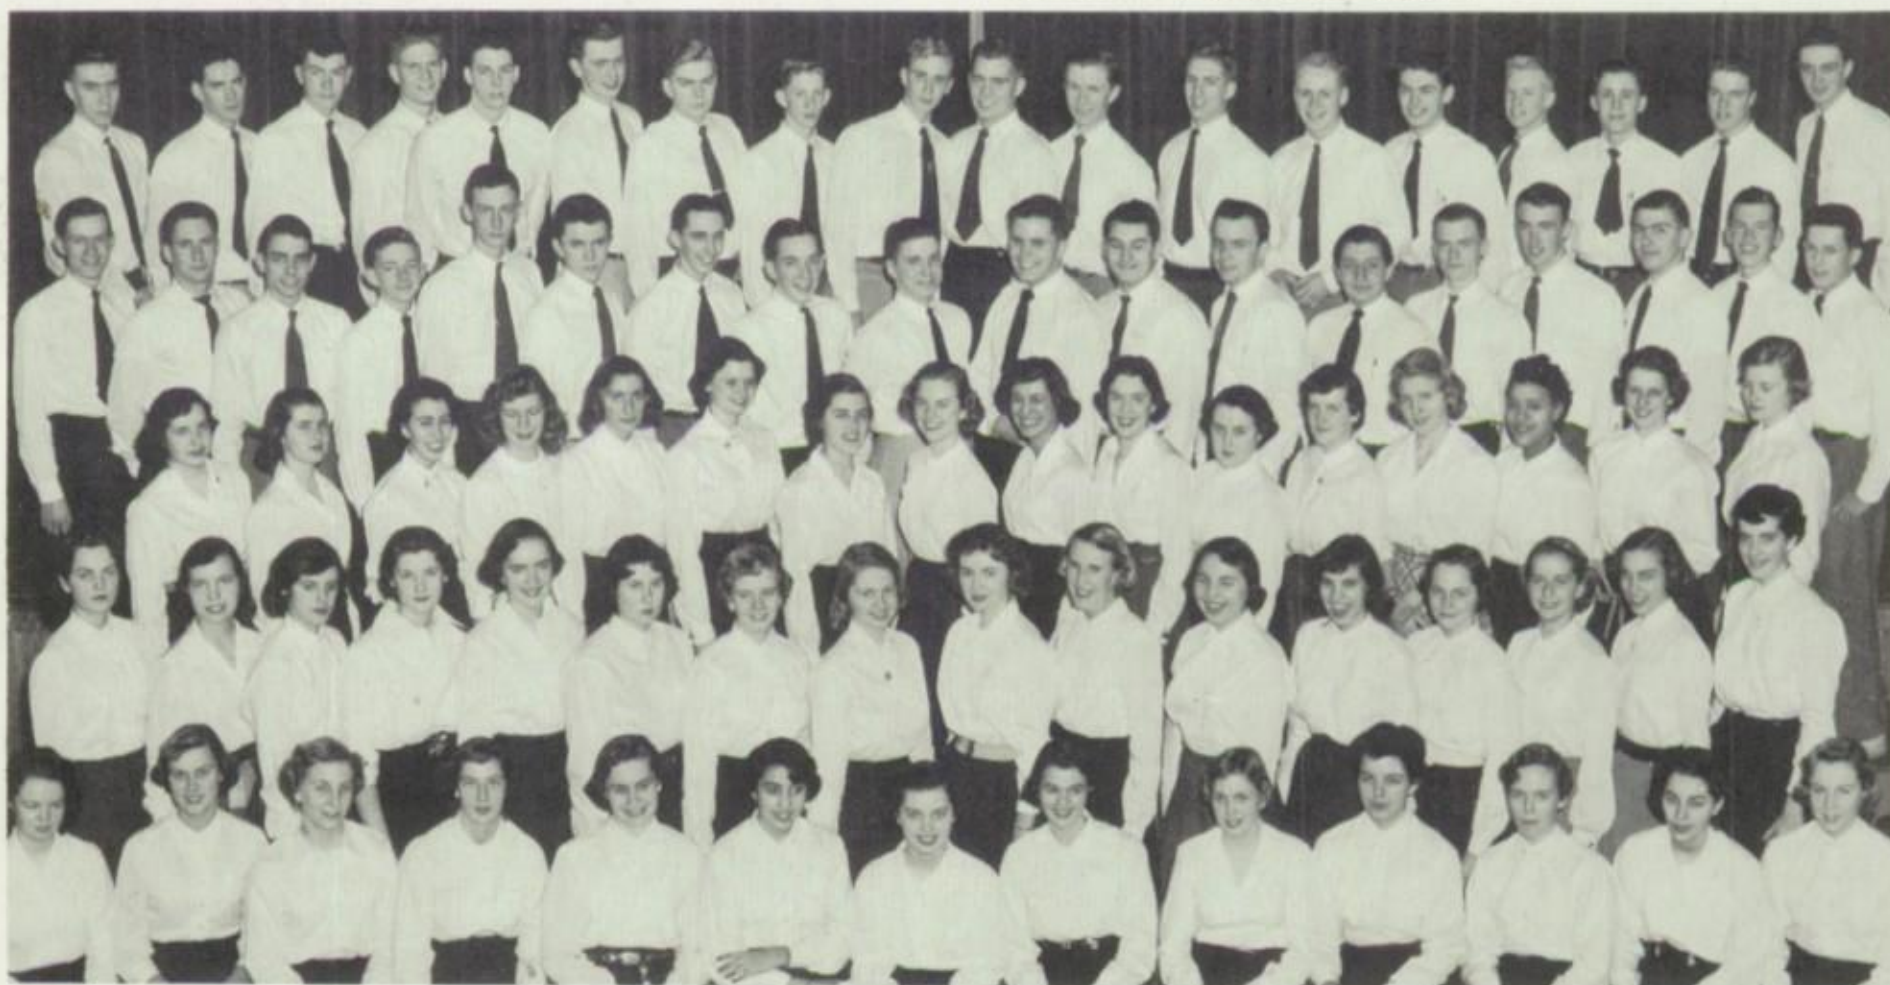

First row: C. Gusmer, N. Davis, H. Whitmore, C. Alexander, G. Lavery, C. Eberhardt, M. Romach, M. Moorhead, T. Leech, S. Coburn, W. Barenborg. Rear row: D. Schwarz, R. Brodsky, H. Smith, J. Cooper, J. Miles, T. Higgins, Mr. Hannaford.

CHORUS

Music is a way of expressing beauty; and there was unanimity in the opinion of the students that the work of Mr. Kautzman, head of the Music Department, and the chorus was particularly outstanding and artistic this year. Blending eighty-eight voices to provide music for Christmas observances, the PTA, the G. O. Show, and the Spring Concert, Mr. Kautzman instilled in the group the sense of cooperation that resulted in a successful season.

First row: D. Devereux, B. Limbach, M. McGiffin, A. Spawn, V. Pott, S. Bedrosian, C. Cartee, N. Seward, M. Irwin, C. Eberhardt, R. Hunt, M. Moore, R. McKaig. Second row: C. Wiedenmayer, M. L. DANCE BAND

The performances of Summit High's Dance Band, a group of contemporary music enthusiasts with real ability, were always well received. Under the able direction of Mr. Hannaford, the group, which combined solid rhythm, sax, and brass sections, played and enjoyed all types of modern music from Dixieland Jazz to Stan Kenton.

First row: S. Madonna, G. Sawyer, C. Low, W. Johnston, M. Yannotta, E. Hansen, P. Cook. Second row: T. Higgins, Mr. Hannaford, C. Eberhardt, C. Cooper, E. Grieser, D. Barker, M. Taylor, D. Bannister, K. Webster, N. Seward, R. Shepard, W. Patterson, G. Smith.

Instrumental music, unlike choral music, does not depend on the quality of our vocal chords. Many people took advantage of this fact, judging by the number of instruments represented in our band and by the quality of marching music played in our assemblies. In fact, our band was so good that it placed third in a national contest. No wonder everybody tapped his foot while waiting for assemblies to begin!

Winning more games than any other soccer team in S.H.S. history, the 1953 soccer squad notched up a record of five victories, three losses, and one tie. Early in the season our own decks were the scene of our win over Montclair. We tasted victory again when we anchored at Cranford. A spectacular 2-2 tie was the result of our tussle with Kearny. Indeed, S.H.S. appeared to be on the way to an undefeated season.

However, as the season progressed we got a taste of defeat. A midseason lapse against an underdog Verona eleven brought the Maroon and White their first loss. Settling the ship, we came back for three more wins; but was sea-sickness the reason our schedule closed with losses to Kearny and Chatham?

Probably our team's highest point of the season was during the first game played with Kearny, state champions for the past three years. Kearny had to come from behind after Hill Topper forwards, Ed Smit and Richard Haupt, scored one goal apiece. Kearny was barely able to tie in the last seconds of the game. Our victories over Cranford and East Orange were the results of fine playing. We sailed over Montclair with little difficulty.

Summit's offensive wall, sparked by Tom Corlett, Robin and Ed Smit, John Bullock, and Richard Haupt, proved to be one of the best scoring lines in this area. These teammates were not only fine scorers, but were also good defense men. The backfield, led by Bob Doll, Ronald Pott, Ted Mendenhall, Bob Tomb, Chuck Bowman, and Ronald Anderson kept the number of goals scored by our opponents small.

The experience of Coach Elmer Haldenwang was invaluable in developing and maintaining a strong soccer team. Pott, Haupt, Doll, and Smit were nominated for post-season squads; these, as well as the rest of the players, realized that their success was in no small way due to the efforts of their coach.

FOOTBALL

The 1953 football team of the S.H.S. gave "Captain" Kandrat his most successful season in several years.

The Hilltoppers' initial contest, a loss to Roselle Park, Union County's top team, proved that Summit needed experience before it could really get under way. The following Saturday, the Hilltoppers were unable to move on either the deck or in the salt air, and Verona soundly beat them. Scoring twelve points in the first half, Summit started to move when the team trounced its traditional rival, Millburn. The outstanding plays of the day were thirty-five and thirty yard runs by Roger Sampson and Jackie Robinson. Three successive wins over Clifford Scott, Glen Ridge, and Madison added greatly to Summit High's prestige.

On November 9, the grid squad reached its highest peak by solidly beating Rahway. As in all of our wins, the game was won by the hard play of linemen Dave Williams, Pete Martin, Tom Lynch, and Dick Turley.

The team closed out their schedule on the next Saturday with only four days rest. Caldwell, playing at its best, rolled up a powerful victory over the fatigued Hilltoppers.

Post season honors went to Sampson, Dinny Walker, Willie Mallory, Williams, and Lynch. Their outstanding play brought forth a great many comments about the excellence of the team. With eighty-eight points, Sampson ended the season as Union County's second highest scorer.

Although football games are won in sixty minutes of action, many hours of practice and teaching are necessary for planning strategy, choosing the right men for each situation, and getting the team into shape. The Maroon and White coaching staff, Mr. Kandrat, Mr. Lytle, and Mr. Ashman, deserved much credit for the efforts in making the 1953 team a winning team.

Although its 8-10 regular season record doesn't indicate it, Summit High's 1953-54 basketball squad, defending Suburban Conference champions, played some of the best basketball in Union County. The majority of the Hilltoppers' defeats came from non-conference opponents. The Maroon and White dropped only four conference games.

Summit was led by a trio of scorers, Willie Mallory, Ronnie Pott, and Tom Conroy. By racking up over 300 points, Conroy became the third highest season scorer in the ship's history. Conroy also set a new single game scoring record of 35 points on Glen Ridge decks. Both Pott and Mallory notched up over 200 points and along with Conroy were among Union County's top scorers.

The other two starting members of the S.H.S. quintet, Dinny Walker and Phil Ryan, added greatly to the team's success. Walker's fine rebounding and alert and hustling play brought many baskets to the five. Ryan's exceptional ball handling and passing labeled him as the team's play-maker. His deadly outside shooting often paced the cagers. Adding greatly to the squad's play were John Bullock, Demi Allen, Tom Wilkes, Dave Williams, and the others who played very capably when called upon.

Entered in the State Tournament, the five came from a thirteen point deficit against Edison Tech in the third quarter to win on a last second lay-up by Mallory. This was the first team in three years that succeeded in winning the first round of the tournament.

Without Coach Cornog and his assistant, Mr. Rillo, the team wouldn't have played so well. Mr. Cornog's experience in producing winning teams and Mr. Rillo's talents gave Summit High a team of which it was very proud.

*Suburban Conference Meet

Even though the Summit High harriers, defending Suburban Conference Champions, triumphed only once and tied once during the 1953 season, the season was not an unsuccessful one. The defeats were only by the narrow margin of a few slim points. In most meets, a first instead of a second would have spelled a victory for S.H.S. Throughout the entire season there was a spirit among the Maroon and White that couldn't be quelled by a lack of wins on home or foreign decks.

Standouts in the team were Ken Sampson, Walt Shipley, Paul McGiffin, Julius Dillingham, Bob Miles, and Bill Schroeder in the field events. Laurels were handed to Ken Holden, Dillingham, and Miles in the dashes; Jim Polk and Bob Tomb in the mile; Phil Stromenger in the 880; and Mel Ford, Henry Wentz, and Bob Reed in the hurdles.

McGiffin, Schroeder, and Ford were the first place winners in the Suburban Conference meet. McGiffin broke his own school javelin record twice during the season, the final time in the state meet with a heave of over 178 feet.

With a team which compared favorably with the Hilltopper Suburban Conference Champions of the last three years, the ship's nine overcame an initial losing streak of five out of six games to win nine out of their last eleven games. The team dropped only four Suburban Conference decisions, two of them to Caldwell's Al Bowers.

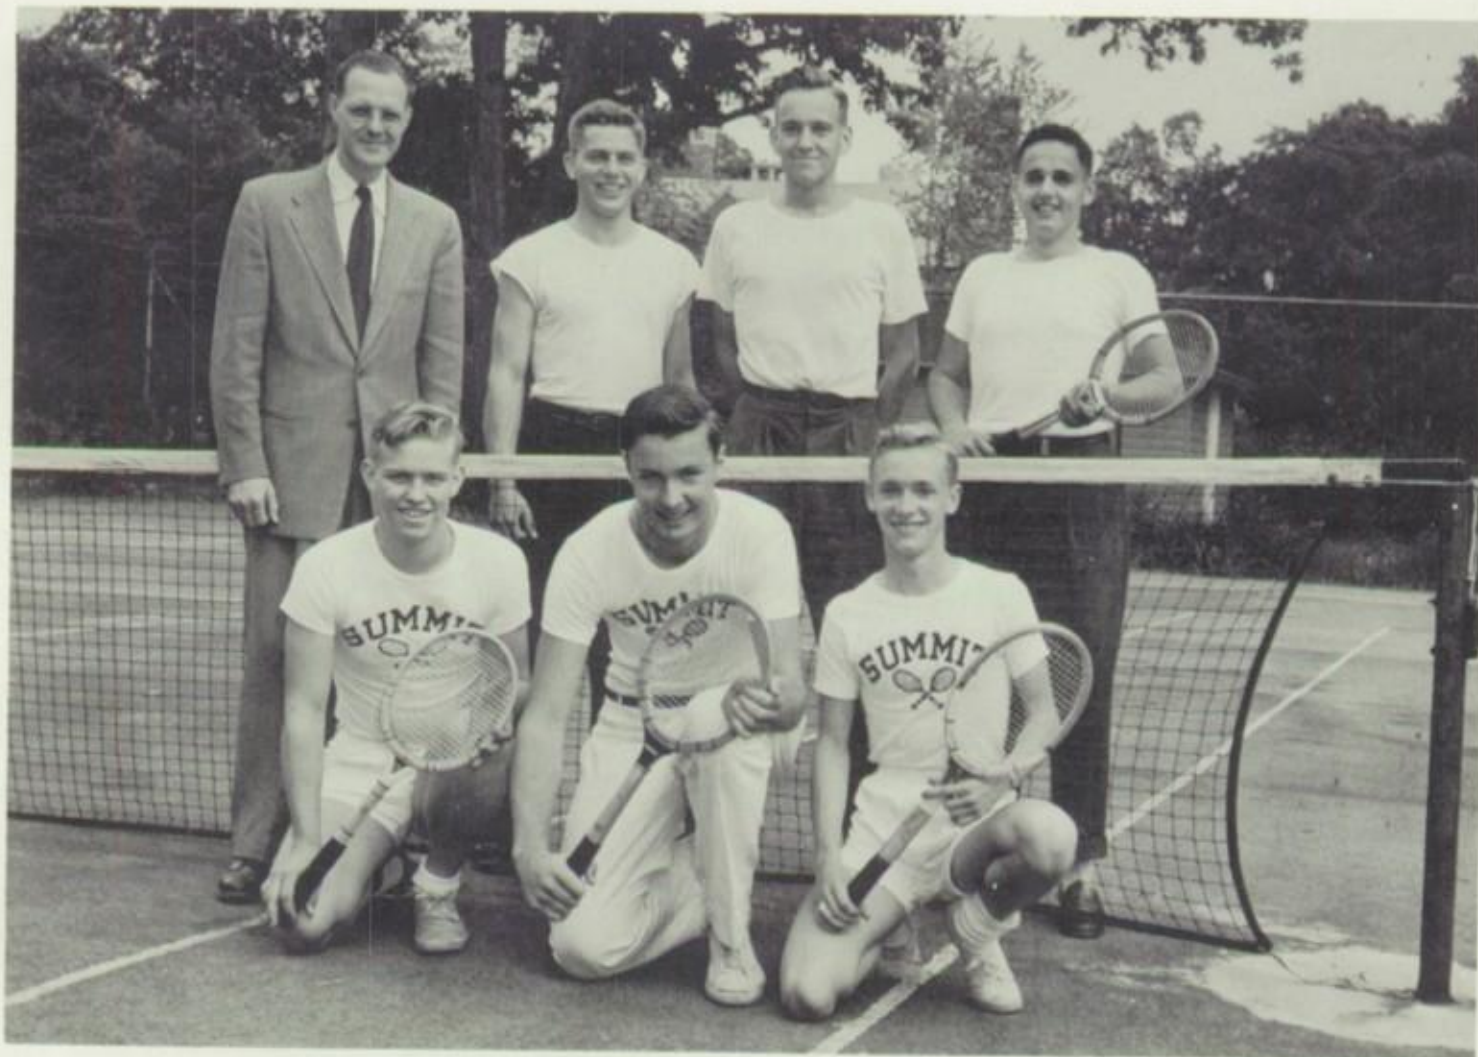

Featuring the late season drive was the hard hitting outfielder, Julian Hill. Hill's batting average of .404 is one of the highest in the Hilltopper's log. However, the rest of the club wasn't devoid of good hitting, as Bill Ryan and Willie Mallory hit well over .300. Jack Ridley, leading Maroon and White hurler, provided one of the hardest luck stories in Summit High baseball history. Although Ridley's three win and four loss record doesn't show it, he twirled a one hitter, four two hitters, and a three hitter and struck out over seventy batters. The other mates on the pitching staff—John Brockelbank, Andy Cattano, and Ronnie Pott—helped pull up Summit's record by winning seven out of ten games.

The 1953 edition of the tennis squad compiled the highly successful record of eight wins and only two defeats. Both losses were at the hands of Millburn. The first Hilltopper defeat, a close match lost by a 3-2 margin, was the highpoint of the season. We swept our deck clean with twin triumphs over Verona, Glen Ridge, Madison, and Caldwell.

The first class netmen were the singles men, Dick Moyer, and Dick Smith. Besides the other singles man, Ted Meyer, there were the doubles players; Walter Patterson, Paul Halbach, Carl Biddulph, Bill Ryan, and Art Westenberger, who contributed considerably to the fine Maroon and White record.

Patterson, Ryan, Biddulph, and Halbach formed a fine nucleus for Coach David McNeely's 1954 team.

Sophomore team I, whose captain was Bernice Ascolese, beat Millburn and Chatham 2-0 and 3-0 respectively; while Dot Grisby's team II beat both Millburn and Chatham by a 3-0 score. A combined team of juniors and seniors lost to Morris-town 2-1. Later in the season Alexandra Rackowski, Joan Harobine, Diane Wolcocke, Granthia Lavery, and Sis Butler competed with Millburn in a state tournament at Westfield.

Here on the ship we not only advance 'boys' sports but also girls'. One of the most popular girls' sports is basketball. This year the girls had an excellent season with six wins, one tie and one loss. Sophomore captains, Dot Grisby and Mary Irwin, led their teams in scrubbing Chatham's decks clean by scores of 64-22 and 63-54. In addition they tied Madison 16-16 and then beat them 32-14. The juniors' captain, Bridget Luciano, accompanied her team to victory over Millburn and Morristown by scores of 29-26 and 23-14. In a close game with Chatham the juniors were defeated 28-27. The seniors, whose captain was Beverly Hulin, were first class sailors, winning all three of their games. They beat Millburn 36-34, Chatham 32-29, and Morristown 23-14.

Truly, this is America

the village church . . . the white picket fence . . . the broad highways which lead to great cities . . . above all, the homes which breed good citizens.

America's strength is bred in her homes. In thousands of towns and cities, where modest bungalow stands proudly alongside a local showplace, where the well-kept lawn of one merges with its neighbor . . . here, the roots of good citizenship are deeply planted.

Here, too, strong bodies and good minds are built.

Because it is so American to want the finest, they will get it. In medicine, for instance, American hospitals, American practitioners are the envy of the world. In quiet towns or teeming cities, the skilled hands of healing go about their work of keeping America well.

To the science of Medicine the physician brings his own individual art of healing, for just as no two people are exactly alike, so no two cases of illness are identical.

Thus, the physician must be free and unhampered, so that he may combine the science of Medicine, which is for humanity, with the art of healing, which is for the individual patient.

At Ciba, in a quiet community of broad streets and pleasant lawns, we produce many of the fine pharmaceuticals used by the medical profession. In modern laboratories, Ciba medical scientists pursue their search for yet newer aids to physicians in their treatment of disease. This, too, is the American way.
